"TEN STAR SERIES" ENDS

Lucy Gates, Soprano, and Theo Karle, Tenor, Heard at National.

The final concert of the popular Ten Star Series at popular prices, presented by T. Arthur Smith, was given yesterday afternoon at the National Theater by Lucy Gates, soprano, and Theo Karle, tenor. The purpose of the series in bringing before the public artists of renown, and also the younger applicant for favor has been amply justified. Or the latter, this season, probably Leginka stands first.

Theo Karle comes also as a young singer who is making his mark. He is a dramatic tenor with an excellent voice, and his interpretations are distinctly authoritative and delightful. His "Celeste Aida" was brilliant, splendidly dramatic, and given with good tone and shading. His voice needs to emancipate itself from a certain throatiness, needs a little more refining and freedom. This should come, for he has the equipment of an artist who should go far, and his soft voice is handled with artistry and beauty.

One felt this charm particularly in the second half of the Beethoven "Fidelio." The "Rachmaninov," "O Schone Madelon" was a beautiful interpretation, while the Haile "Im Zitternden Mondlichtwien" had to be repeated.

Miss Gates has a very high, light soprano voice that reaches F above high C. It is facile in such songs as "A des Oiseaux" of Hux, and she is at her best in her delicate work. A nasal quality mark much of her sustained singing and her pitch is not always accurate. The "When Calis Sing" was particularly effective, and of her three Grieg songs the "Solvejgs Lied" had to be repeated. Her program concluded with the "Lakme Bell Song." J. MacB.

MARCH EXIT LAMBLIKE

Traditionally Blustery Month Belies Reputation This Year.

Although authorities were divided as to the "animalistic" resemblances of March 1 and much discussion was provoked over whether the third month came in like a lion or lamb, there was no debate today when the dogology was sung.

March went out like a lamb. Perfect weather prevailed.

Students of the calendar and the dictionary professed interest in the lamblike exit of March and the generally mild weather of the past thirty-one days. March was named after Mars, the god of war, and is supposed to be continuously on the rampage. Even the animals are expected to be invaded with the spirit of fight, hence the expression "Mad as a March hare."

Tomorrow is the day to be on the alert for stories about President Wilson entertaining Kaiser Wilhelm at the White House. Roosevelt, too, to the Democratic party, Champ Clark withdrawing from the Speaker's race, and similar April fool yarns. Pick up no pocketbooks and kick no silk hats!

LADIES' SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back its Color and Lustre with Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easy way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, making one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.
